Part X, Line 2:

The Company and its affiliates have been determined to be tax-exempt organizations as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) and, accordingly, are exempt from federal income taxes on related income pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Code. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been recorded in the accompanying consolidated financial statements for these tax-exempt organizations.

The Captive is a limited liability company (LLC) under the Federal Income Tax Code and as an LLC passes its income or loss for federal and state tax purposes to its members.

Tax-exempt organizations could be required to record an obligation for income taxes as the result of a tax position they have historically taken on various tax exposure items including unrelated business income or tax status. Under guidance issued by FASB, assets and liabilities are established for uncertain tax positions taken or positions expected to be taken in income tax returns when such positions are judged to not meet the "more-likely-than-not" threshold, based upon the technical merits of the position. Estimated interest and penalties, if applicable, related to uncertain tax positions are included as a component of income tax expense. The Company has evaluated the tax positions taken on its filed tax returns. The Company has concluded no uncertain income tax positions exist at June 30, 2024.

Part III Supplemental Information

Provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part II. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Part I, Line 1a:

Charles Hays $59,596 Treated as taxable compensation.

Part I, Line 3:

The Board of Directors is responsible for determining the compensation package (base salary, performance incentive pay plan and other benefits and perquisites) for the Chief Executive Officer. They have an independent executive compensation consultant who advises the Board after completing an evaluation the compensation and benefits provided to its Chief Executive Officer - this includes. using comparability data, expert compensation studies and other means as well as their findings and opinion regarding the reasonableness of the maximum total remuneration that could be earned.

Paid executives who hold voting privileges may not vote or participate in discussions regarding their compensation; however, they may answer questions that will help the Board in its deliberations. For other officer and key employee positions, the Chief Executive Officer is responsible for determining the base compensation for all his direct reports, while the Board of Directors is responsible for the variable compensation. An

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

All Forms 990 and related attachments were reviewed by appropriate members of senior management, the Finance Committee, and the Board of Directors before the filings were sent to the Internal Revenue Service. Final drafts of Forms 990 were available thirty days prior to the filing deadline in order to be formally reviewed by the Chief Financial Officer, the Compliance Officer, the entire senior management team, the Finance Committee, and the Board of Directors. Forms 990 and related attachments were provided to and reviewed by the Finance Committee in April 2025 and by the Board of Directors in May 2025.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

MaineGeneral Health's Conflict of Interest Policy requires disclosure of any actual or potential conflict of interest to the Board Chair. Interested persons are prohibited from participating in the governing body's deliberations and decisions regarding any transactions when they have a conflict of interest. If the Board or Committee has reasonable cause to believe that a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, the Board or Committee shall investigate and then determine by a majority vote whether a conflict of interest exists and whether the violation is grounds for removal from the Board or Committee. There are formal records of these proceedings. In addition, each director, officer, and member of the Board is required to annually complete and sign a Conflict of Interest Disclosure Statement. Employees must disclose in writing to their supervisors any conflicts of interest prior to engaging in transactions or taking positions with MaineGeneral Health. In addition, these disclosures must be approved by the supervisor's manager or, as applicable, the Board Chair, in conjunction with the Human Resources Compliance Officer. If management has reasonable cause to believe that an employee has intentionally failed to disclose a conflict of interest, appropriate disciplinary or corrective action up to and including termination shall be taken. In addition, upon hire or promotion to a management position, all management employees shall complete a Conflict of Interest Disclosure Statement, which will be submitted to the Ethics and Compliance Department for review and reporting to the Chief Compliance Officer, who will record and report each validated conflict of interest to the Board.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

The Board of Directors is responsible for determining the compensation package for the Chief Executive Officer. An independent compensation consultant advises the Board using comparability data, executive compensation studies and other means. Paid executives who hold voting privileges may not vote or participate in discussions regarding their compensation; however, they may answer questions that will help the Board in its deliberations. The Chief Executive Officer's compensation was last reviewed April 2023. For other officers and key employee positions, salary structures are developed and maintained based on compensation data for healthcare organizations provided by an independent compensation consultant. This data is reviewed by the CEO to determine salaries that are consistent with non-profit healthcare organizations of a similar size, mission and complexity to our organization. The salary determinations made by the CEO are submitted to and approved by the Board of Directors.
